

ROSWELL DAILY RECORD

DEMOCRATIC IN POLITICS.

C. E. MASON Business Manager
GEORGE A. PUCKETT Editor

Entered May 19, 1908, at Roswell, N. M., under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Daily, Per Week.....15c
Daily, Per Month.....60c
Daily, Per Month, (In Advance).....50c
Daily, One Year (In Advance).....$5.00

PUBLISHED DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY BY RECORD PUBLISHING CO

MEMBER ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Now that congress has adjourned, look out for stormy weather at old Santa Fe.

If Hudspeth is not more careful, the lower house will break up in a riot one of these days.

The severity of Governor Hagerman remains undisturbed in the midst of the warring elements.

For the first time in many weeks, there was no report of a railroad wreck in the dispatches yesterday.

Every man is the maker of his own fortune, and must be, in some measure, the trumpet of his fame.—Dryden

The history of today is the most important history of the world—and tomorrow will be more important still.

Wonder what is coming? The New Mexican has taken up "Dry Farming," and the Albuquerque Journal is discussing the "Dictionary."

Let us repeat: If Governor Hagerman wins, we get good government; if the gang wins we get a Democratic victory in 1908—and good government follows.

The old gang will please make a note of the fact that the Governor has not lost his influence at Washington, and that Uncle Sam is watching them.

Compromise with grafters may be all right from a Republican standpoint—but what counsel should you expect from a Democrat in the present situation but "Lay on Macduff."

The Santa Fe New Mexican has hatched a rumor to the effect that F. W. Clancy, of Albuquerque, is to be appointed attorney general to succeed W. C. Reid, of Roswell.

There are gamblers, swindlers, pirates and rascals running at large, and all that they are asking in these days of indictments and grand juries is to let alone.—El Paso Herald.

And so the retirement of Secretary Hitchcock offers no hope for the old rotten gang in New Mexico. The new Secretary speaks out more plainly than any other person has yet dared to speak as to the attitude of the administration at Washington.

Any kind of advertising has some value. Even wearing a suit and a long tailed coat helps for the world seldom has time to investigate, and takes a man at his own estimate for the time being. But in the end the advertiser must be able to deliver the goods.—Maverick.

The public has a right to expect much of a man who makes a specialty of a subject that has been handled by the greatest writers of the world. The courage required for a public lecture on Napoleon should be admirable in itself. This is not in the least a comment on last night's lecture, for the "Parson" didn't hear it.

The Record cannot afford to advertise Mr. Newkirk's paper at Artesia, but if the editor really wants to fight perhaps a date for a personal encounter might be arranged, the only condition being that squirt guns be barred as weapons. We do not propose to be taken at an unfair advantage by an expert in the use of this peculiar weapon.

As the Record has before stated, it would be to the party interest of the Democrats to have the fight in the Republican party continue. But we live in New Mexico, and good government is more important than mere victory in filling the offices with Democrats. If the Republicans fail to give us good government, however, the Democrats are sure to win in 1908—and so there is little sense in any Democrat being much worried.

Charges have been filed before the receiver of the land office at Santa Fe against Granville Pendleton of San Juan county, alleging dishonesty and unprofessional conduct upon several different counts, and asking that Pendleton be barred from practice before the interior department or any of its bureaus. Mr. Pendleton was formerly a member of the Territorial Immigration Bureau, and was removed by Governor Hagerman. Uncle Sam seems to be still backing up the Governor.

Said the speaker at a lawyers' dinner: "We lawyers couldn't do better than to resolve in the new year to be greater in our cross-examinations. Rudeness in cross-examination never pays. This is a truth that I once saw proved in a damage suit. In this suit a cross-examining lawyer shouted at a witness in overalls: 'You, there in the overalls, how much are you paid for telling untruths?' Less than you are," the witness retorted, "or you'd be in overalls, too."—Kansas City Star.

SOLVING THE SALOON PROBLEM. From Bryan's Cosmopolitan.

In order to study the saloon problem at first-hand, an eastern minister donned the habiliments of a tramp and spent several weeks hanging around liquor shops. Then he returned to his congregation and told them a few things. He told them that the saloon keeper found it a good investment to maintain a watering trough for horses, for while the horses were drinking the teamster stopped in and got one for himself. The saloon doors were always open, and a hungry man could always find food therein. He told them that the saloonkeeper was always kindly, always sympathetic, and always ready to help. Then he wound up by saying: "For $500 men join exclusive political and social clubs on the avenue of the metropolis. For $5 some men join Young Men's Christian Association clubs, but for 5 cents the multitude of men whom only God and the saloonkeeper and the ward boss know nightly join the one democratic club in American life, the American saloon." His conclusion was that if the saloon is to be eradicated it must be done by substituting for it something that will furnish the social element so craved by men without mixing with it the ills of the saloon.

SOMEWHAT SIGNIFICANT.

From Albuquerque Journal.

A bill to abolish gambling has been passed by the Arizona legislature, and public opinion in New Mexico is so strongly in favor of a similar law for this Territory that the majority in the lower house of our legislature has been convinced—much against its will—that it will have to go back on its friends of the gambling fraternity for the time being, and allow an anti-gambling law to be enacted in this Territory also. Now, just at this time, when an anti law has been passed in one territory, and public opinion is thought to be strong enough to force its passage in the other, isn't it a somewhat significant coincidence that active efforts should suddenly be put forth in both territories at the same time for the repeal of the laws establishing the mounted police, or rangers, as they are called in Arizona?

Possibly the following paragraph, which is a clipping from the Phoenix Republican's report of proceedings in the Arizona legislature, may assist the reader in accounting for the milk in that coconut:

"Mr. Dickerman said that the lawless element favored the abolition of the force. He said that on a recent visit to Prescott he talked with a gambler who hoped that the rangers would have to go. He said that in spite of the law against gambling the gamblers would have little trouble with the local peace officers; they were only afraid of the rangers."

BACKING UP GOV.

ERNOR HAGERMAN.

A few of the gang papers have been intimating that the president was not looking with approval upon the efforts of Gov. Hagerman to secure good government in New Mexico. These ideas are effectually dissipated by the following, which is taken from the Albuquerque Journal:

Mr. Will C. Barnes, of Las Vegas, is in Santa Fe today to attend a meeting of the New Mexico cattle sanitarians board, of which he is secretary. Mr. Barnes has just returned from Washington, where he has been for some time as a member of President Roosevelt's special commission to consult with the United States commission of public lands upon the proposed law for the leasing of the public domain. During his stay in Washington, Mr. Barnes received some very interesting information as to the attitude of the administration toward men and affairs in New Mexico. He was received by the president and had several conversations with Mr. James R. Garfield, who on March 4 succeeded Mr. Hitchcock as secretary of the Interior.

Frequent efforts have been made by enemies of Governor Hagerman to create the impression that upon the retirement of Secretary Hitchcock from the Interior Department, the governor would no longer have the support and indorsement of the department and the administration. Some of these stories have gone so far as to set the date for the governor's removal or retirement, and the politicians who are exerting themselves to obstruct every effort of the governor toward improving conditions in New Mexico have joyfully predicted trouble for the governor upon Mr. Hitchcock's retirement, even going to the extent of naming his successor.

In view of these stories, what Mr. Barnes has to say of the conditions in Washington, becomes very interesting. "During my stay in Washington," said Mr. Barnes today, "I had three interviews with Mr. Garfield, who became secretary of the interior on March 4. These interviews concerned matters in New Mexico in which the new secretary was interested.

"At the close of my third interview with Mr. Garfield, I said, 'Mr. Garfield, you know Governor Hagerman is an appointee and protégé of Secretary Hitchcock, who leaves his office as secretary of the interior in March to be succeeded by you. Now under these conditions there is among the opponents of Governor Hagerman in New Mexico a feeling that when you step into Mr. Hitchcock's place on March 4, one of your first jobs will be the removal of Governor Hagerman and the appointment of a new man as governor of New Mexico. This feeling, which is a very natural one under the circumstances, is in some ways a hindrance to Governor Hagerman in the carrying out of his policies, and while I now, after talking with you fully realize that no such movement is contemplated, yet I would like very much to have permission to tell the people back at home just how you stand on this question."

"To this Mr. Garfield said: "Not only do I gladly grant you permission to quote men in this matter, but I shall ask you as a favor to me, when you get back to New Mexico to say to everybody who is interested in this matter that in everything I have done, in every step he has taken, and in any future steps that Governor Hagerman may take looking to better government, better administration of public affairs, and the bringing to justice of all dishonest and corrupt officials, no matter whom they are, Governor Hagerman has the full support and most unqualified approval of this department from the President down."

Personally, I can assure you that as Secretary of the interior, I shall stand behind Governor Hagerman in all his acts, as long as those acts are along the lines upon which he is now working, and which I am sure will give you a better and cleaner administration of your public affairs than you have ever had before.

"You can say further that we here in Washington are fully informed of your conditions in New Mexico and know of the difficulties that confront Governor Hagerman, and I cannot urge too strongly on you and all good loyal citizens of New Mexico, and especially the republicans, of the territory, to get together and give him your hearty and loyal support, to the end that not only the territory, but the republic party may be strengthened and built up."

"As to the removal of Governor Hagerman, that question has never for a moment been considered, nor will it be as long as he does his duty."

"Mr. Garfield further said that he wanted to impress on the republicans of New Mexico the necessity of their settling their differences and working together for the common good, to the end that the supremacy of the republican party in the territory may be continued."

GOOD ADVICE.

If you want old folks to like you and to greet you with a smile, Don't butt in.

If 'tis pleasant to hear people cry, "Don't go, but stay awhile."

Don't butt in.

If 'tis nice to hear them say to you, "He's square upon the bone."

And when you see him coming you don't have to give a groan;

He just minds his own business, and lets your affairs alone."

Don't butt in.

If you're craving to be popular and asked out everywhere, Don't butt in.

If you'd like to feel no plan's complete of pleasure, you not there, Don't butt in.

If you'd like to know you are a man whom every one will trust, And all be glad to lend a hand if now and then you're "bust,"

And if, in short, you would be "it" with the stars and the just, Don't butt in.

But if you'd like to be the man whom everyone will shun, Just butt in.

If you want to go through life and never have a bit of fun, Just butt in.

Tell everybody how to do it if they don't want to fail;

Into all the private business of the folks you meet, just sail;

If you want to raise a wild desire to ride you on a rail, Just butt in.

—Baltimore American.

Will Use Robertson Lots.

O. H. Nelson, ranchman, George M. Slaught, who the men in charge have decided in favor of the Robertson lots on Richardson avenue as the place for holding the big sale of pure blood cattle during the cattlemen's convention here in April. These lots are already provided with considerable shed room and these sheds will be of great value should bad weather happen to come during the convention. Mr. Nelson is president of the Western Stock Yards Company, of Amarillo.

For a Tropical Fair.

Washington, March 5.—A movement has been started at Mobile, Ala., which has for its object the extension of trade between the United States and the "banana republics" of Central America and the West Indies. An organization has been formed to be known as the Gulf Coast Tropical Fair Association, and it is proposed to hold an annual exposition, including exhibitions of the products of all such southern tropical countries as are at present or in the future likely to become associated in commercial relations with the Gulf Coast country. In the commercial battle for the shillings, francs and marks of Europe, it has in the past been forgotten that the pesos of our Latin-American neighbors are good money. Such a fair as projected should be a great aid in the movement for rectifying that error.

Eyes tested free at L. B. Boshner, Jeweler and Optician, 3242

We are settled in our new quarters and extend you a cordial invitation to come and see us in our new home.

Payton Drug, Book & Stationery Company.

removal of Governor Hagerman and the appointment of a new man as governor of New Mexico. This feeling, which is a very natural one under the circumstances, is in some ways a hindrance to Governor Hagerman in the carrying out of his policies, and while I now, after talking with you fully realize that no such movement is contemplated, yet I would like very much to have permission to tell the people back at home just how you stand on this question."

"To this Mr. Garfield said: "Not only do I gladly grant you permission to quote men in this matter, but I shall ask you as a favor to me, when you get back to New Mexico to say to everybody who is interested in this matter that in everything I have done, in every step he has taken, and in any future steps that Governor Hagerman may take looking to better government, better administration of public affairs, and the bringing to justice of all dishonest and corrupt officials, no matter whom they are, Governor Hagerman has the full support and most unqualified approval of this department from the President down."

Personally, I can assure you that as Secretary of the interior, I shall stand behind Governor Hagerman in all his acts, as long as those acts are along the lines upon which he is now working, and which I am sure will give you a better and cleaner administration of your public affairs than you have ever had before.

"You can say further that we here in Washington are fully informed of your conditions in New Mexico and know of the difficulties that confront Governor Hagerman, and I cannot urge too strongly on you and all good loyal citizens of New Mexico, and especially the republicans, of the territory, to get together and give him your hearty and loyal support, to the end that not only the territory, but the republic party may be strengthened and built up."

"As to the removal of Governor Hagerman, that question has never for a moment been considered, nor will it be as long as he does his duty."

"Mr. Garfield further said that he wanted to impress on the republicans of New Mexico the necessity of their settling their differences and working together for the common good, to the end that the supremacy of the republican party in the territory may be continued."

GOOD ADVICE.

If you want old folks to like you and to greet you with a smile, Don't butt in.

If 'tis pleasant to hear people cry, "Don't go, but stay awhile."

Don't butt in.

If 'tis nice to hear them say to you, "He's square upon the bone."

And when you see him coming you don't have to give a groan;

He just minds his own business, and lets your affairs alone."

Don't butt in.

If you're craving to be popular and asked out everywhere, Don't butt in.

If you'd like to feel no plan's complete of pleasure, you not there, Don't butt in.

If you'd like to know you are a man whom every one will trust, And all be glad to lend a hand if now and then you're "bust,"

And if, in short, you would be "it" with the stars and the just, Don't butt in.

But if you'd like to be the man whom everyone will shun, Just butt in.

If you want to go through life and never have a bit of fun, Just butt in.

Tell everybody how to do it if they don't want to fail;

Into all the private business of the folks you meet, just sail;

If you want to raise a wild desire to ride you on a rail, Just butt in.

—Baltimore American.

Will Use Robertson Lots.

O. H. Nelson, ranchman, George M. Slaught, who the men in charge have decided in favor of the Robertson lots on Richardson avenue as the place for holding the big sale of pure blood cattle during the cattlemen's convention here in April. These lots are already provided with considerable shed room and these sheds will be of great value should bad weather happen to come during the convention. Mr. Nelson is president of the Western Stock Yards Company, of Amarillo.

For a Tropical Fair.

Washington, March 5.—A movement has been started at Mobile, Ala., which has for its object the extension of trade between the United States and the "banana republics" of Central America and the West Indies. An organization has been formed to be known as the Gulf Coast Tropical Fair Association, and it is proposed to hold an annual exposition, including exhibitions of the products of all such southern tropical countries as are at present or in the future likely to become associated in commercial relations with the Gulf Coast country. In the commercial battle for the shillings, francs and marks of Europe, it has in the past been forgotten that the pesos of our Latin-American neighbors are good money. Such a fair as projected should be a great aid in the movement for rectifying that error.

Eyes tested free at L. B. Boshner, Jeweler and Optician, 3242

WESTERN GOLFERS CONVENTION.

Chicago, March 5.—Delegates from all the various clubs represented in the Western Golf Association are here today for the ninth annual meeting, which will be held this evening at the Occident hotel. One of the principal matters to be considered is the proposition to change the date of the annual session from the first Tuesday in March as at present, to the week of the annual amateur championship, or at near the club where such tournament takes place.

The question was discussed at the meeting last year, but owing to the opposition of President-elect Hoyt and others it was tabled. It is argued by those favoring the change that the attendance at a championship tournament is greater than can be mustered at a winter meeting and that it would be better to settle everything championship and all at one time.

Albert R. Gates, secretary of the Western Golf Association, will probably be elected to the presidency at tonight's meeting. Other nominees who will be voted on are as follows:

Vice-president, Edward F. Carry, of the Exmoor Country Club; Secretary, Charles F. Thompson of the Home-wood country club; Treasurer, J. C. Brocklehead of the Edgewater Golf club; Directors, Horace F. Smith of the Nashville, Tennessee, country club; Benjamin F. Schurmer of the Town and Country club of St. Paul, Minn.; Silas H. Strawn of the Midlothian country club; Heyward G. Leavitt of the Omaha, Nebraska country club; and Stewart Clark of the Evanston Golf club.

Three of the proposed directors are executives of important inter-sectional associations, Mr. Schurmer being president of the Minnesota Golf Association, Mr. Smith of the Southern Golf Association, and Mr. Leavitt of the Trans-Mississippi Association.

CONGRESSMEN ARE OFF ON PANAMA JUNKET.

Washington, March 5.—A large party of members of the house of representatives left today for a trip to Panama for the purpose of investigating the progress of the construction of the isthmian canal. They will sail from New York on the Alliance, which is furnished the congressmen by the government without charge.

Passes over the Panama railroad have also been supplied to all the members of the party, and they will be lodged and feasted at the government hotels along the route of the canal while making their investigations. The session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

Part of the party, who are making their investigations, the session will spend about six days in the canal zone, being due to arrive at Colon a week from tomorrow, and will leave on March 18, arriving at New York on March 23.

doctors, 16 merchants, 9 journalists, 7 college professors, 6 orthodox priests and 2 bishops, 7 marshals of nobility and many other trades and professions.

The budget proposals were today submitted by the ministers to the council of the empire. The total ordinary and extraordinary expenditure for the current year, based on the budget for last year is fixed at $1,250,000,000. This means an increase in the total expenditure of $32,350,000, representing an obligatory expenditure of the exchequer in carrying out the laws passed after the adoption of the 1906 budget. The ordinary receipts are estimated at $1,087,500,000 and are expected to show an increase of $73,500,000 over last year. A loan will probably be floated to cover the total of the extraordinary expenditures contemplated for 1907, estimated at $149,300,000.

Colorado Buckeye Banquet.

Denver, Col., March 5.—Ex-Governor Myron Herrick of Ohio, ex-Governor Jesse McDonald of Colorado and other former residents of the Buckeye State will spend the evening at a banquet to be tendered Governor Henry Butcher by the Ohio Society of Colorado this evening.

All wanting cheap spring millinery goods, call at 816 N. Main. 091f

Rakes, Spades and Hoes at Makin's.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE.—Land scrip.—W. G. Skillman. 421f

FOR SALE.—A good hack at City Livery Stable. 0815*

FOR SALE.—Full set carpenter tools, cheap. Mrs. Katie Simmons. 313

FOR SALE.—Three or four miles open woven wire fence. Apply Oasis ranch, or phone 347. 11f

</